

RED RIVER VALLEY JUNIOR ACADEMY
Code of Conduct

CONDUCT	EXPECTATIONS	PRO-ACTIVE INTERVENTION BY SCHOOL	INDICATIONS OF APPROPRIATE CONDUCT	CONSEQUENCES FOR APPROPRIATE CONDUCT	CONSEQUENCES FOR INAPPROPRIATE CONDUCT
RESPECT FOR GOD	Students are expected to show loyalty, honor and respect for God in all school and classroom activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Act as appropriate role models. -Communicate Christian rationale for this type of conduct 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Students will not use God's name in vain in any school or classroom activities. -Students will displays a positive attitude toward RRVJA'S Christian Philosophy 	One or more of the following to reward students for appropriate conduct: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Verbal/written approval -Parent/Guardian contact -Tokens -Public approval/recognition 	Any combination of the following will be taken if student fails to meet these expectations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Interview with student by teacher/supervisor. -Removal of privileges. -Parent/Guardian contact -Contract for improvement -Temporary removal from class -Written assignments -Meeting with parent/guardian -In-school suspension/detention -Length of suspension/detention to be determined by administration
RESPECT FOR AUTHORITY	Students are expected to respect all school staff, fellow students, volunteers and all school policies.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Act as appropriate role models. -Teach each student with respect, care and dignity. -Communicate school policy regarding respect for authority. 	Student will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -demonstrate a cooperative attitude towards staff members. -use appropriate oral, written and body language -be respectful in physical and verbal interaction with peers, staff and others adults in the building 	See the above series of consequences.	See the above series of consequences.
RESPECT FOR OTHERS	Students will treat each other with respect and courtesy. They will respect the rights of fellow students maintaining a school environment free from fear, prejudice and distractions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Act as appropriate role models. -Communicate school policy regarding respect for others. -Provide supplementary programs to enhance respect for others. (Assemblies, vespers, devotions, guest speakers) 	In addition to the above, student will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Respect the rights of others to learn without disruption/distraction. -Students will value the multicultural make-up of their schools and respect the individual differences in each other. 	See the above series of consequences.	See the above series of consequences.

CONDUCT	EXPECTATIONS	PRO-ACTIVE INTERVENTION BY SCHOOL	INDICATIONS OF APPROPRIATE CONDUCT	CONSEQUENCES FOR APPROPRIATE CONDUCT	CONSEQUENCES FOR INAPPROPRIATE CONDUCT
RESPECT FOR PROPERTY	Students are expected to show respect for personal property, school property and the property of others.	-Act as appropriate role models in the care of property. -Encourage students to take responsibility for protecting property. -Discuss the ramifications of theft and vandalism. -Utilize community police services to provide information sessions on crime prevention.	-Students will not use God's name in vain in any school or classroom activities. -Students will displays a positive attitude toward RRVJA Christian Philosophy	One or more of the following to reward students for appropriate conduct: -Verbal/written approval -Parent/Guardian Contact -Tokens -Public approval/recognition	-Interview with students by teacher/supervisor. -Removal of privileges. -Parent/Guardian contact -Contract for improvement -Temporary removal from class -Written assignments -Meeting with parent/guardian -In-school suspension/detention -Length of suspension/detention to be determined by administration
PUNCTUALITY	Students are expected to punctually attend classes and all school related activities. (e.g. vespers, recesses)	-Act as appropriate role models. -Communicate school policy regarding attendance.	Student will: -arrive on time for classes. -communicate reason for being late/absent to their teacher. Parent/Guardian to inform school when a student is going to be late/absent. Provide a note for appointments.	See the above series of consequences.	See the above series of consequences.
SUBSTANCE ABUSE	The use of alcohol, tobacco, non-medicinal drugs within the school on school grounds or within the context of school initiated activities is not permitted!	-Act as appropriate role models. -Provide supplementary programs to enhance and promote a healthy lifestyle.	Students will -not bring substances onto the school property and to school initiated functions.	See the above series of consequences.	One or more of the following will result if a student fails to comply: -Confiscation of substances. -Suspension/Expulsion from school. -Referral to administration. -Police may be contacted
POSSESSION OF A WEAPON	Students are expected to not be in possession of an object that my constitute a weapon. (Pocket knives, box-cutters, matches, etc.)	Teachers will discuss the issue of weapon possession and what may be considered a weapon.	Students will not: -bring a weapon to school. -use any instrument as a weapon.	See the above series of consequences.	One or more of the following will result if a student fails to comply: -The weapon will be seized. -Parents/Guardians will be contacted. -Suspension from school. -Police contacted

